My dear Mrs. Woklegemuth:

Because my mother works with the trainable retarded children in our school system here, I have sat in on many of their classes ~~and~~ and gone to several of their activities and presentations. I have found that with just a little kindness and understanding, they are the most loving, affectionate children in the world.

I wish to wholeheartedly congratulate you on your move to dismiss Dr. McClelland from his post as Super of Pa State School. Such gross inhumanities as to allow sensitive people to sit in wooden cages ~~have~~ no place in our society.

It is heartwarming to see a public servant who is not afraid to make changes to keep up with the times.

Again, congratulations on your brave actions and keep up the good work. Right on!

Sincerely,
Miss Karen King
