

April 19, 1973

Dear Mrs. Wohlgemuth:

My sympathy to you. You have done a grave injustice to Doctor McClelland and I am sure you will realize this some day.

With this on your conscience, you could possibly end up in one of our state institutions. I hope if you do, and you should become violent, you have your own private padded cell and are kept sedated 24 hours a day.

This will make things easier on everyone and you will always look pretty when company comes to call.
